What is a Neighbourhood House?

Neighbourhood Houses operate on the belief that it is the neighbourhood that directly affects the lives of individuals and families. A neighbourhood house is a central hub for the community, connecting different kinds of services, helping neighbours of all ages and backgrounds connect, and providing a space where people are empowered to make change happen in their lives.

Role of the Community Advisory Board (CAB)

Marpole Neighbourhood House is a part of the Association of Neighbourhood Houses of BC. The ANHBC Board provides oversight and governance over all houses and camps.
